

If you wish to park in front of New Hall, you must contact us to obtain a permit. Walk up the road between New Hall and Chemistry to Special Collections, located in the big green building at the top of the road. The reading room is in the single portacabin at the back of the building. The nearest toilets and refreshment facilities are to be found at New Hall.