WELCOME…

I have been Chaplain for 11 years and have loved (almost) every minute of it. I am here for the whole community, regardless of faith or philosophy of life. I really enjoy hearing how life feels for students and for colleagues, and discovering anew what St Andrews (or the meaning of life) is like through fresh eyes. I spend much of my time taking part in discussion groups, or leading worship, or listening to people going through a hard time. But I also make time to travel – this past year in Albania and the Isle of Arran. My music taste is stuck in the 1980s with smatterings of Renaissance polyphony on top. And you may spot me on one of St Andrews’ many golf courses, trying – sometimes successfully – to relax.

Anyway, I hope we meet some time this year (note that I’m taller in person – 6 foot 6). Feel free to get in touch whatever your issue, connected to faith or not, regardless of whether you would say you’re religious. And I wish you every blessing during your time at St Andrews.

Take care,

Donald

Hello

My name is Samantha Ferguson and I am your Assistant University Chaplain. I work with Donald and the Chaplaincy Team in supporting all staff and students. Whether we care for you during difficult times or celebrate with you during joyous moments, we are here to support you through your time at the University.

The Chaplaincy and our chapels are open to all who are part of our university community. My role is a part-time position and I assist Donald in providing pastoral support and leading worship in our two beautiful chapels – St Salvator’s and St Leonard’s. I also conduct weddings for staff, students, alumni, and family of those connected to the university in our chapels and am nominated to conduct same-sex weddings.

At the Chaplaincy, we are here for all faiths, for those who have no faith or those who choose a different philosophy of life. This is very important to us as your Chaplains. All are welcome to come and speak to us about everything and anything. It can be a question about a matter of faith or a personal dilemma. Whatever it is that is on your mind, we provide a listening service where we walk alongside people in a non-judgmental way. We are here to help you with your life problems and concerns. If you need someone to talk something through with, please come and have a chat. It is easy to book a slot through the Chaplaincy office at any time.

One area that I offer at the Chaplaincy is support for those who are grieving. We run a Grief Group which helps students who have been bereaved feel less isolated. We meet several times a semester and have a lunch together. If you have lost someone you would be very welcome to join us. Just email me for more information.

As far as my background goes, I am a graduate of St Mary’s College of Divinity here at St Andrews and an ordained Anglican Priest in the Scottish Episcopal Church, licensed by the Bishop of St Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane. I am also a wife and a mum. When time permits, in between walking our two dogs, I love to swim, sing, and listen to true crime podcasts. Sometimes I even do all three together! Please come and say hello – I am the short round one in a collar that you will probably see standing in line at Tesco’s trying not to buy doughnuts!

Enjoy your time at St Andrews and remember, we are here to listen and support you anyway we can.

Blessings,

Samantha

Greetings…

As Assistant Chaplain, I invite you to come by my office or contact me with any questions, quandaries, moral dilemmas, personal problems, or anything else you would like to get off your chest. My door is always open. I am a good listener, and I enjoy sharing home baking. But don't be surprised if you leave my office with more questions than you arrived with. I believe in questions.

As an interfaith chaplain, I work with students of all religions, philosophies, outlooks, and gender identities. In my work with the Interfaith Steering Group and the Coexistence Initiative, I try to foster dialogue by establishing respect for people of all faiths. And I believe there is also room for a spirituality that does not involve faith in any god. I strive to learn from all people, and I accept all people with respect.

I also support the Chaplaincy's environmental program. So, if you would like to get out in nature, help with our Garden for Reflection, do some conservation work, or get involved with sustainability issues, please be in touch.

I have worked in synagogues and schools as a Jewish interfaith educator in Chicago (my hometown), Jerusalem, New York City, Salt Lake City, and Florence, Italy. I love to see the world, but I love St Andrews best of all. I have lived here, with my wife Emily and three wonderful children for thirteen years.

If you spot me surfing on my paddleboard at the beach or playing my bouzouki at the Whey Pat, please don’t hesitate to say hello.

All the best,

Bill

Meet the Team…

Fiona Barnard, Honorary Global Chaplain
Email: fvb@st-andrews.ac.uk
Fiona loves meeting students and staff from all over the world. She oversees our Local Link scheme which introduces students, for whom English is not their first language, to local people – see further information on the Chaplaincy website. She is also an ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) tutor through Fife Council where, among others, she enjoys teaching partners of those at the university. Recently trained in Ignatian Spiritual Direction, she is glad to offer accompaniment for staff and students seeking to explore prayer in daily life.

Revd Jane Barron, Honorary Church of Scotland Chaplain
Email: jlb31@st-andrews.ac.uk
Jane has worked in and around St Andrews, particularly with congregations around the East Neuk, for the last few years. She was an English teacher and a radio journalist before training for ministry at Christ’s College Aberdeen. Ordained to Stobswell Church, Dundee in 1999 and since then has been minister to St Andrews Scots Memorial Church, Jerusalem & St Andrews Galilee, and St Machar’s Cathedral Aberdeen. Jane was inducted to the parish of Ceres, Kemback and Springfield in December 2021.

Barbara Davey, Honorary Quaker Chaplain
Email: bd45@st-andrews.ac.uk
Barbara is a lifelong Quaker, devoted to learning and nurturing, writing and gardening, with a keen sense of the creative and the spiritual. She is a member of St Andrews Quaker Meeting (The Religious Society of Friends) and serves with Friends both locally and nationally.

Sandy Edwards, Honorary Humanist Chaplain
Email: ase1@st-andrews.ac.uk
Sandy previously taught Biology in the University and is now retired but still does fieldwork with some teaching. He is a Humanist funeral celebrant and has held various posts in the Humanist Society Scotland. Sandy is on the committee of the Spiritual and Healthcare department in NHS Tayside and works as a volunteer at Ninewells Hospital.
Revd Michael John Galbraith
Honorary Roman Catholic Church Chaplain
Email: mjg23@st-andrews.ac.uk
Father Michael John is the Parish Priest of St James in St Andrews on the Scores opposite Canmore, the Catholic Chaplaincy.

Rabbi Eliran and Ayalah Shabo
Honorary Jewish Chaplains
Email: eliran@mychaplaincy.co.uk and ayalah@mychaplaincy.co.uk
Rabbi Eliran and Ayalah were both born in Israel and now live in Edinburgh. They previously lived in Athens, Greece where Rabbi Eliran served as the Junior Rabbi of Athens and led the Jewish Studies program for high-school students, and Ayalah promoted collaborations between the local and Israeli communities. Rabbi Eliran and Ayalah offer support and guidance to Jewish students.

Kitty Macintyre
Honorary Pagan Chaplain
Email: klkm@st-andrews.ac.uk
Kitty has worked in the University administration for 30 years, having been a student here before that. She enjoys her regular contact with Pagan students and any other students who cross her path.

Dr Emily Michelson
Honorary Lay Jewish Chaplain
Email: edm21@st-andrews.ac.uk
Emily offers support to Jewish students in teaching, hospitality, organizing services and other events, and in taking part in Jewish Society events. Emily is married to our Assistant Chaplain, Bill Shackman.

Revd Dr Jared Michelson
Honorary Cornerstone Chaplain
Email: jm282@st-andrews.ac.uk
Jared grew up in the United States but has lived and worked in St Andrews with his wife Becky since 2013 while pursuing post-graduate education. In 2018 Jared became the lead Pastor at Cornerstone Church in St Andrews.

The Very Revd Archimandrite Avraamy Neyman
Honorary Orthodox Chaplain
Email: xaneyman@yahoo.co.uk
Fr Avraamy is a priest and monk from the Russian Orthodox Church who moved to Scotland in 2007 and is based in Dundee.

Dr Sam Pehrson
Honorary Buddhist Chaplain
Email: sdp21@st-andrews.ac.uk
Sam is a lecturer in the School of Psychology and Neuroscience. He works with the student-led Buddhist Meditation Society to run the weekly meditation and reading/discussion group. He is happy to meet anybody in the university interested in any aspect of Buddhist practice.

Imam Vali Hussain
Honorary Islamic Chaplain
Email: valihussein@hotmail.com
Imam Vali Hussein works with the St Andrews University and Muslim Students Association in organising Friday Prayers and is available to students and staff on any issue in connection with Islam.

What is the Chaplaincy?

The Chaplaincy is a university department which enhances the life and experience of students and staff in all sorts of ways. We offer worship in the beautiful medieval chapels on Sundays, weekdays, Christmas, graduation, and other times of year. The Chaplaincy team offer pastoral care for any student or member of staff, regardless of faith or philosophy of life. This could be a sympathetic, confidential listening ear, support in emotional issues, a safe place to explore questions of faith or sexuality, someone to talk to in a crisis, or support when all else fails. To arrange to meet Donald, the Chaplain, email him on dgm21@st-andrews.ac.uk. To meet with one of the Assistant Chaplains, contact Samantha on sjf6@st-andrews.ac.uk, or Bill on bs58@st-andrews.ac.uk or email the secretaries on chaplaincy@st-andrews.ac.uk or call 01334 462866 or drop by the Chaplaincy.

We support people of different faiths, providing honorary chaplains, space in the Chaplaincy building (called Mansfield, across from the Union), and we sponsor the Interfaith Steering Group, which runs wonderfully stimulating events. We have a range of facilities available for both student groups and individuals, including small and large meeting rooms, kitchen, garden, and quiet meditation/prayer spaces. Should you or your group wish to book any of our facilities please contact the Chaplaincy secretaries who will be happy to assist you.

Full details of the facilities and how to book can be found at the Mansfield building webpage.

We offer support

The Chaplain and his team offer pastoral support, regardless of faith or philosophy of life, to help you find a way through whatever problems you face.

In hospital or know someone who is?

Please let us know... The Chaplains are glad to visit. Being in hospital can be a vulnerable time and we are glad to offer support. This is especially important if an individual is far from home. The role of the Chaplains is to offer care to any member of the University community: staff or student. We rely on you to help us care. As with any support, appropriate confidentiality will be maintained.

Other sources of support

University life can be stressful, even when you are enjoying it. The University of St Andrews takes the mental and emotional health of its students and staff seriously along with your academic life. As such we offer a wealth of services to support and help you in time of need. Whether that be from the Chaplains, Student Services, Nightline or the Students’ Association, there is someone here to help.

Student Services provides a range of professional services committed to guiding and advising students, while offering strategies, skills and techniques to empower you to cope with difficulties and challenges.

Specialist, wellbeing, counselling and mental health services are based in Eden Court and can offer in-person or virtual appointments. Student Services also provides specialist advice on a range of matters, including:

- Disability Support: if you have specific learning disabilities or a long-term medical condition
- Money Advice: if you are experiencing financial difficulties or have concerns about money issues
- Wellbeing: if you are looking for someone to listen and give you advice on a broad range of issues
- Academic Advice: if you need advice regarding changing modules, performance, absence, taking time out, appeals etc.
- Coaching: if you are feeling stuck and you have a goal but no plan.

The Peer Support Network is a confidential one-to-one meet-up service which is open to any student looking for a little extra help during their time at St Andrews. It is made up of student volunteers with training in listening skills who are available for a coffee and a chat. They are happy to provide support and a confidential listening ear for any issue, big or small, as well as company for trying out new things (like society activities). If you’re interested in being matched with a peer or would like to learn more about the programme, feel free to send an email to peersupport@st-andrews.ac.uk

To book an appointment with Student Services use Student Services Online Bookings or:

Phone: 01334 (46)2020
Email: theasc@st-andrews.ac.uk

The ASC (the Advice and Support Centre) is the front door to the University for all students.

Staff at the ASC are available for any query, from paying bills to obtaining an academic transcript, seeking advice on visas, making a complaint, personal issues or any other student matters.

Staff can also assist you in making appointments with Student Services staff and connecting you with Registry Support Officers and Associate Deans. With links to all University departments, the ASC is the quickest way to get the advice you need!

Phone: 01334 (46)2020
Email: theasc@st-andrews.ac.uk

Nightline – is a confidential and anonymous listening and information service run by students and for students every night of term time. If you want to speak to another student, in confidence, about anything, give them a call. Further information and online chat is available at the Nightline website

Phone: (01334 46) 2266

Chaplaincy Prize

This prize has been established through the generous donation of monies received through the University of St Andrews American Foundation. Awarded each year, the prize will be open to all current students at the University of St Andrews and based around a particular theme for an original piece of creative work or essay.

The theme for the 2022/23 award is ‘Scotland’s Future’.

This year’s theme is inspired by The Scotland’s Future Series (the Scotland’s Future Series webpage), an initiative launched by the Principal’s Office, which aims to stimulate discussion and debate about Scotland’s future. It aims to bring forward intellects, ideas, and voices to the wider public on a range of issues and opportunities which Scotland currently faces.

One such issue is faith – how we explore and celebrate its many forms is the theme the Chaplaincy would like to bring to the fore within its prize award this year.

Prize awards:
First £250 / Second £150 / Third £50

The winner will be decided by a committee formed from the Chaplaincy team, convened by the Chaplain, who will assess applications and choose a prize-winner.

To enter:
Submit your entry directly by email attachment in either Word or PDF format, to chaplaincy@st-andrews.ac.uk or in person to the Chaplaincy, Mansefield, 3a St Mary’s Place, St Andrews.

Full entry criteria available at: The Chaplaincy Prize webpage

Closing date: 5pm on Tuesday 31 January 2023.

Chaplaincy Groups

Thinking Allowed – A discussion group looking at issues in faith and society during the first semester, then a relaxed exploration of the Christian faith in the second semester. It doesn’t matter what background (faith or none) or denomination you are.

Grief Group – Open to staff and students, specific events for each, who are grieving, and this does not have to be a recent loss. A safe place to discuss and share various aspects of grief. Led by the Revd Samantha Ferguson, Assistant Chaplain.

Ministry Discernment Group – This group is for anybody who wants to explore a sense of call to ministry, in a relaxed setting, with others sharing a similar experience. Led by the Chaplain, Revd Dr Donald MacEwan.

Simply Quiet – A time of stillness to pause, gather and reflect.

Turning Pages – A monthly group for staff discussing readings mainly on faith.

Chaplaincy events take place at the Chaplaincy unless advised otherwise.
Event dates, times and locations are published in full at: The Chaplaincy events webpage
University Chapel Preachers

We are pleased to welcome guest preachers from various denominations and backgrounds to our Sunday services (11am) in St Salvator’s Chapel. Services will also be available online and via livestream; details will be published on our Worship webpage, Facebook and Chaplaincy Newsletter.

St Salvator’s Chapel

St Salvator’s Chapel is at the heart of the University. It is open to all to go in, to sit, think or pray, to be quiet and draw strength, to listen to an organist rehearsing, to show round visitors, or even to revise for an exam. An ecumenical chapel belonging to the University, it plays host to many services, including weddings, memorial, and graduation day services. Its steeple, visible from all directions as you approach St Andrews, welcomes all to the University and the Chapel.

St Salvator’s Chapel was consecrated in 1460 as part of St Salvator’s College, founded ten years earlier by Bishop James Kennedy as part of the young University of St Andrews. There are numerous features from those early years especially Bishop Kennedy’s own tomb. The pulpit is approximately 17th Century, but most of the Chapel’s furniture and decorations are much more recent, with beautiful carved pews, stone altar with mosaics, First and Second World War Memorials, and colourful stained glass windows which tell Bible stories, and portray virtues and heraldic symbols.

The main entrance to the chapel faces out onto the street and not into the college courtyard, known as St Salvator’s Quad. The cobbles beneath the bell tower bear witness to the turbulent events of the 16th century. The initials PH set into the cobbles marks the site where 24-year-old Patrick Hamilton (died 1528) was burnt at the stake for his Protestant beliefs.

There is a fine organ in the chapel, and most services are enhanced by choirs including St Salvator’s Chapel Choir singing music from across the centuries. There are six bells in the tower which ring out for Sunday Services, graduations, and weddings on request. Details on getting involved as a choir member, bellringer, chapel usher/tech team member or reader are found elsewhere in this booklet.

Where you share the faith of the chapel or do not, you are welcome at a service or simply to come into the building, at the heart of the University, perhaps write a prayer in the book on the table and find strength from its beauty and peace.
Weddings in the University Chapels

Many weddings take place every year in the University Chapels. Current students and staff, graduates and their children and grandchildren, are among those who may be married in St Salvator’s or St Leonard’s Chapel. Weddings of Christian churches can be held in the chapels, and same-sex marriage ceremonies may take place. The Chaplaincy can provide a chaplain to conduct your wedding if you wish.

St Salvator’s Chapel is the larger of the two chapels, situated on North Street, seating approximately 180 guests in the nave with an additional 100 in the ante-chapel. The pews face each other across the Chapel in collegiate style in the nave. The chapel is equipped with wheelchair access and induction loop microphone system.

St Leonard’s Chapel is the smaller of the two chapels offering a more intimate setting for smaller weddings, situated in the grounds of St Leonards School. Seating approximately 50 in the nave, pews again face across the Chapel in collegiate style. The Chapel is equipped for wheelchair access.

Further information on weddings at the University can be found on our website on the Community Facilities webpages. The Chaplaincy secretaries welcome wedding enquiries on chaplaincy@st-andrews.ac.uk or 01334 462866.

The University also boasts a number of historic venues to host your reception. For more details visit the Accommodation, Conferences and Events weddings and venues webpage.

Chaplain’s Conversations

Discover more about the people of the University of St Andrews. In conversation with the Chaplain, Donald MacEwan, these key figures will explore their path to the university, what inspires them in their research and their thoughts about the future of education. This is a FREE ticketed event, which will take place in the Byre Theatre Studio. Tickets available via the Byre Box Office 01334 475000 or the Byre Theatre website.
