Interested in spending your summer expanding your academic horizons at Scotland’s oldest university?

The University of St Andrews is steeped in tradition and known for its global outlook, ranked first in the UK by the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide in 2022. This new Global Summer School gives undergraduate students from around the world the opportunity to explore different disciplines and earn academic credit.

What you will gain from the course:

- Tuition on two accredited modules with small class sizes (up to 25).
- 20 SCQF credits (10 per module): equivalent to 5-6 US credits or 10 ECTS.
- The chance to complete the St Andrews Professional Skills Award (endorsed by the Institute of Leadership and Management).
- An extracurricular programme of excursions and cultural and social activities to allow you to explore Scottish culture and some of Scotland’s stunning landscapes.

Dates:

- Week 1: 30 May - 3 June 2022 (online)
- Weeks 2 to 5: 4 June - 2 July 2022 (in person in St Andrews)
- Week 6: 4-8 July 2022 (online)

Course fee:

£5,000 (this includes tuition, accommodation and participation in the extracurricular programme)
Module options:

A) Scotland’s History: Kingdom, Nation, People (School of History)

B) Connecting the Ancient and Modern Worlds (School of Classics)

C) A Century of Chinese Cultural Innovation (School of Modern Languages)

D) The Art of the Medical Practitioner (School of Medicine)

Modules can be taken in the following combinations:

A+B; A+C; B+D; C+D.

Entry requirements:

To be eligible for the programme, you must meet the following criteria:

- Have completed at least two semesters in full-time higher education before arrival in St Andrews.
- A minimum average grade of 3.2 (on a USA 4.0 GPA scale) or equivalent.
