The parable of the Pharisee and the publican, Basilica of Sant’Apollinare Nuovo, Ravenna

St Salvator’s Chapel
Sunday 23 October 2022
Welcome to St Salvator’s Chapel to students, members of staff, family and friends. All are welcome at this ecumenical service, whether or not you share the Christian faith of this chapel. This printed order gives guidance as to the way we worship here. When words are in bold type we say them together. The words of the hymns are found in the purple hymn-books unless printed in this order of service.

The preacher today is His Excellency Archbishop Claudio Gugerotti, Apostolic Nuncio to Great Britain.

Music is led by a Campbell Watterson Organ Scholar. The choir have no duties today because of Independent Learning Week.

Readers: The first reading is read by Frank Quinault, former Hebdomadar. The second reading is read by Stuart Campbell, Honours Classics student.

Chapel Offerings: One-third of the Chapel offerings go towards the costs of Chapel Services and the Chaplaincy, and two-thirds go to charity. The charity supported today is the Scottish Catholic International Aid Fund (SCIAF). SCIAF is the official relief and development agency of the Catholic Church in Scotland. Their mission is to help the poorest free themselves from poverty by equipping them with the tools they need. They reach out to those in need regardless of age, race, or religion, working in partnership with local and church organisations, supporting communities across Africa, Asia, and Latin America, to bring about lasting change.
Order of Service

Welcome

Approach to the Word of God

Call to Worship

The Lord is kind and forgiving,
full of love towards all who cry to him.
(Psalm 86: 5)

Hymn

Sing to the Lord a joyful song

1. Sing to the Lord a joyful song,
   lift up your hearts, your voices raise;
   to us his gracious gifts belong,
   to him our songs of love and praise.

2. For life and love, for rest and food,
   for daily help and nightly care,
   sing to the Lord, for he is good,
   and praise his name, for it is fair.

3. For strength to those who on him wait his truth to prove, his will to do,
   sing to our God, for he is great,
   trust in his name, for it is true.

4. For joys untold, that from above cheer those who love his sweet employ,
   sing to our God, for he is love;
   exalt his name, for it is joy.

5. Sing to the Lord of heaven and earth, whom angels serve and saints adore,
   the Father, Son, and Spirit blest,
   to whom be praise for evermore. Amen.

John Samuel Bewley Monsell (1811-1875)
Prayers of approach, thanksgiving, confession, and forgiveness

Collect
O God our redeemer,
you heard the cry of your people,
and sent your servant Moses
to lead them out of slavery.
Free us from the tyranny of sin and death,
and by the leading of your Spirit
bring us to our promised land;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns
with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

The Word of God

First Reading 2 Timothy 4: 6-8, 16-18

6 As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

16 At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! 17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion’s mouth. 18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.
Responsive Psalm 65

1. Praise is due to you, O God, in Zion;
to you that answer prayer shall vows be paid.

2. To you shall all flesh come to confess their sins;
when our misdeeds prevail against us,
you will purge them away.

3. Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your courts to dwell there.
We shall be satisfied with the blessings of your house,
even of your holy temple.

4. With wonders you will answer us in your righteousness,
God of our salvation,
hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the farthest seas.

5. In your strength you set fast the mountains and are girded about with might.

6. You still the raging of the seas,
the roaring of their waves
and the clamour of the peoples.

7. Those who dwell at the ends of the earth tremble at your marvels;
the gates of the morning and evening sing your praise.

8. You visit the earth and water it;
you make it very plenteous.

9. The river of God is full of water;
you prepare grain for your people,
for so you provide for the earth.

10. You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges;
you soften the ground with showers and bless its increase.

11. You crown the year with your goodness, and your paths overflow with plenty.

12. May the pastures of the wilderness flow with goodness and the hills be girded with joy.

13. May the meadows be clothed with flocks of sheep and the valleys stand so thick with corn
that they shall laugh and sing.
Second Reading Luke 18: 9-14

9 Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:
10 ‘Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. 11 The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, “God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.” 13 But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, “God, be merciful to me, a sinner!” 14 I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.’

Hymn Come down, O Love Divine

1. Come down, O Love Divine, seek out this soul of mine,
   and visit it with your own ardour glowing;
   O Comforter, draw near,
   within my heart appear,
   and kindle it, your holy flame bestowing.

2. O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
   to dust and ashes, in its heat consuming;
   and let your glorious light
   shine ever on my sight,
   and clothe me round, the while my path illumining.

3. Let holy charity
   mine outward vesture be,
   and lowliness become mine inner clothing;
   true lowliness of heart,
   which takes the humbler part,
   and o’er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.
4. And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
we cannot guess its grace,
till we become the place
wherein the Holy Spirit makes a dwelling.

Sermon

What a good Christian I am!

---

Response to the Word of God

Hymn

Will you come and follow me?

1. Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don’t know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

3. Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?
4. Will you love the ‘you’ you hide
   if I but call your name?
   Will you quell the fear inside
   and never be the same?
   Will you use the faith you’ve found
   to reshape the world around,
   through my sight and touch and sound
   in you and you in me?

5. Lord, your summons echoes true
   when you but call my name.
   Let me turn and follow you
   and never be the same.
   In your company I’ll go where your love and footsteps show.
   Thus I’ll move and live and grow
   in you and you in me.

Prayers of intercession and Lord’s Prayer

Response

   God of love
   hear our prayer

   Our Father,
   who art in heaven,
   hallowed be thy name.
   Thy kingdom come.
   Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
   Give us this day our daily bread.
   And forgive us our trespasses,
   as we forgive those who trespass against us.
   And lead us not into temptation,
   but deliver us from evil.
   For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
   for ever and ever, Amen.
Hymn

O thou who camest from above
the pure celestial to impart,
kindle a flame of sacred love
on the mean altar of my heart!

1. O thou who camest from above
the pure celestial to impart,
kindle a flame of sacred love
on the mean altar of my heart!

2. There let it for thy glory burn with inextinguishable blaze,
and trembling to its source return,
in humble prayer and fervent praise.

3. Jesus, confirm my heart's desire to work, and speak, and think for thee;
still let me guard the holy fire,
and still stir up the gift in me:

4. Ready for all thy perfect will,
my acts of faith and love repeat,
till death thy endless mercies seal,
and make the sacrifice complete.

Chaplaincy Prize 2022-23

The theme for the 2022/23 award is ‘Scotland’s Future’.

This year’s theme is inspired by The Scotland’s Future Series, an initiative launched by the Principal’s Office, which aims to stimulate discussion and debate about Scotland’s future. It aims to bring forward intellects, ideas, and voices to the wider public on a range of issues and opportunities which Scotland currently faces.

One such issue is faith – how we explore and celebrate its many forms is the theme the Chaplaincy would like to bring to the fore within its prize award this year.

Prize awards: First £250 / Second £150 / Third £50

Closing date: 5pm on Tuesday 31 January 2023.

Full entry criteria available at: www.st-andrews.ac.uk/chaplaincy/chaplaincy-prize/

Second Reading Luke 18: 9-14

9 Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:
10 ‘Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. 11 The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, “God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.” 13 But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, “God, be merciful to me, a sinner!” 14 I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.’

Hymn Come down, O Love Divine

Chaplaincy Prize 2022-23

The theme for the 2022/23 award is ‘Scotland’s Future’.

This year’s theme is inspired by The Scotland’s Future Series, an initiative launched by the Principal’s Office, which aims to stimulate discussion and debate about Scotland’s future. It aims to bring forward intellects, ideas, and voices to the wider public on a range of issues and opportunities which Scotland currently faces.

One such issue is faith – how we explore and celebrate its many forms is the theme the Chaplaincy would like to bring to the fore within its prize award this year.

Prize awards: First £250 / Second £150 / Third £50

Closing date: 5pm on Tuesday 31 January 2023.

Full entry criteria available at: www.st-andrews.ac.uk/chaplaincy/chaplaincy-prize/
