AIM:
The course is designed to introduce students to the concepts of financial decision-making in uncertain domestic and global markets, as well as providing them with a set of tools and techniques for use in financial analysis.

Graduating students in management who ultimately work in major corporations, small companies, governmental entities, or non-profit organisations will need to understand the implications of their financial decision making for their firm value and/or effectiveness of their organisation. Generally, these decisions are made under conditions of great uncertainty. Managers must understand the role cash flow plays in creating firm value and be able to analyse, utilize and monitor financial statements and understand how their financial decisions impact on the future profitability and survival of the company.
