OR

• You can do a Special Subject
  (year-long 4000Level module)

NB. You can only do one Dissertation for your degree
Dissertation (1)

• Between now and April:
  • Think and decide: do I want to do a dissertation?
    – Mediaeval History and Mediaeval History & Archaeology students must do a Dissertation
  • Get in touch or meet with members of staff
  • Do some initial research
  • The Dissertation form asks for four things:
    – The names of potential supervisors you have approached
    – Your chosen area of research
    – A 300-word abstract
    – Indicative bibliography (at least eight items)
  • Submit the Dissertation Form – deadline: Monday 24 April 2017
Dissertation (2)

• May 2017
  • You will be allocated a supervisor and a topic
  • Introductory meeting with you supervisor (not compulsory)

• Summer 2017 & Semester 1
  • Work on your dissertation (optional)
  • You can email your supervisor for advice (who may not be available instantly, so please do plan ahead)
  • Sept 2017 - Advising
Dissertation (3)

• Academic Year 2017-18
  – Week 12 (Sem1) – Preliminary organisational meeting with supervisor
  – January 2018 – Research
  – Week 0 or 1 (Sem2) – Meeting with supervisor
  – Up to five meetings with your supervisor, including the following:
    • A meeting to discuss an overall outline and bibliography
    • An informal presentation of your topic and progress so far, to your supervisor and two or three other students (usually supervisees of the same tutor) in Week 4
    • A meeting to discuss a draft chapter (3000 words)

• Written Material submitted during supervision (not graded, but compulsory)
  – Outline of the overall structure of the planned dissertation & indicative bibliography (week 2 of Sem2 [tbc])
  – A 3000-word draft chapter by Friday (week 5 of Sem2 [tbc])

NB. You can contact your supervisor by email, but no supervision will be offered after Friday of Week 8
Dissertation (4)

• Dissertation submission date: Monday of week 10 (Sem2), 4.30 pm (TBC)
  - Word limit: 10,000 -12,000 words (including footnotes and appendices but not the bibliography)
  - Two bound copies & one electronic copy to MMS

• April/May 2017 – Optional 15-minute presentation of your topic at the Annual Fourth Year Conference (organised by the School President) [not assessed]

• June 2017 – Formal results available through MySaint

Honours Project (HI4998)

• How is it different to the Dissertation?
  – Modern topic only (post 1500AD)
  – No individual supervisor
  – Fortnightly group meetings (usually 4-6 students)
  – Shorter essay (8000 words) – 75%
  – Oral element (15-minute presentation) – 25%
  – Self-contained within the semester, no need for prior research
  – Available in both semester 1 and semester 2
  – More weight on secondary sources and material found in and close to St Andrews
Honours Project (HI4998)

Timeline
• Submit an abstract of 300 words (week 3)
• Submit an annotated bibliography (week 5)
• Submit a structural outline of the project (week 8)
• Presentation (normally in week 9)
• Submission deadline: Friday of week 11

No special application forms are required for the Honours Project; students simply choose HI4998 on their pre-advising form, and will be notified to meet their tutors in Week 1 or 2.

Money matters

• Look for funding
• Contact Student Services for info on outside trusts
  • http://www.st-andrews.ac.uk/students/money/bursariesandscholarships/outsidetrusts/

• Two possibilities:
  • Carnegie Trust Undergraduate Vacation Scholarships (for Scottish students)
    – Deadline: 15 March 2017, but the application needs to be submitted by the School. IF you are interested, email asohist@st-andrews.ac.uk.
  • Travel scholarships
    – Internal deadline: Wednesday 8 March 2017
    – http://www.st-andrews.ac.uk/students/money/bursariesandscholarships/travelscholarships/
Research ethics and your research
(applies to all research modules discussed today)

• If your research involves
  – human participants (adults and/or children)
  – interviews and/or surveys that solicit personal information and/or canvas opinion
  – observational work
  – collection of photographic images
  – observation and/or interaction with social media sites
  – etc.

• You will need to submit an Ethical Application Review Form
  – Raise this with your supervisor or the member of staff you are meeting as soon as possible,

  before starting research on your topic!

Any questions?
Writing a dissertation on a Mediaeval topic
Writing a dissertation on a Modern topic
Recording the past (HI4997)

- A project in the form of a radio programme, video documentary, website or other appropriate medium
- Limited intake: 6-8 students
- Group projects are welcome, their volume being dependent on the numbers involved.

- The project outcome is assessed on the quality of the research and analysis (including oral interviews and photographic, film or sound sources) and on the technical quality of the final outcome.
- The project may build on work already done in another module, but it must break new ground and use substantially new research.
- You should already possess some experience in the medium in which you choose to present the project.

Assessment
15% - Treatment
35% - written portion
50% - Final Project
