17th UK CSEAR Congress: Hosted by the University of St Andrews, September 5th - 7th 2005

Papers and Presentations

Jan Bebbington, St Andrews University: Initiating Corporate Social Responsibility Reporting: Evidence from New Zealand

Jan Bebbington, St Andrews University: Environmental Reporting in the UK: An analysis of emerging trends

Cornelia Beck, Northumbria University: The Information Content of Environmental Disclosures in UK and German Companies’ Annual Reports

Ataur Rahman Belal, Aston University: Corporate Social Reporting (CSR): A review with particular reference to developing countries

David Bent, Forum for the Future: Developing a Framework for Sustainable Business Decisions: Case study in the chemicals industry

Nicolas Berland, IAE of Poitiers (University): Responsible Care and Sustainable Management: The Double Influence of Society - Management Practices

Eleonora Cardillo, University of Catania: The Social Reporting in the Public Sector: The application of a model in an Italian municipality

David Collison and Colin Dey, Dundee University: Social Indicators and the Legitimation of Anglo-Saxon Capitalism: A role for shadow accounting?

Massimo Contrafatto, University of Bergamo: Social and Environmental Reporting: A longitudinal analysis of Italian organizations’ disclosures

Stuart Cooper, Aston University, David Owen and Karen Shaw, Nottingham University: The Operating and Financial Review: A catalyst for improved corporate social and environmental disclosure?

Tracy-Anne De Silva, Lincoln University: Current Voluntary Environmental Reporting in New Zealand and Australia

Jesse Dillard, Portland State University: The Facts Are Not Enough

Jane Gibbon, Northumbria University: Social Account of a Social Enterprise - The story so far

Rob Gray, St Andrews University: Social, Environmental And Sustainability Reporting And Organisational Value Creation? Whose Value? Whose Creation?

Matthew Haigh, Universiteit van Amsterdam: Apprehending the Business and Society Relation

Rain Kamla, Aberdeen University: Social Accounting: A Syrian Perspective
Nancy Kamp Roelands, Ernst & Young: UNCTAD's Social Indicators Project

Sheila Killian and Martin Mullins, University of Limerick: The Impact of Intellectual Property Tax on Northern-southern hemisphere issues, particularly sub-Saharan Africa and Brazil

Linda Lewis, Sheffield University: An Application of Whole Life Cost Accounting to Asset Management: An aid to sustainability?

Malar Malarvizhi, IILM: Green Pulse of Corporate India

Patrick Mallon, Business in The Community: BiTC's Experience in Providing an Index of Social Responsibility

Laurie Mook, OISE/University of Toronto: Accounting for Economic, Social and Environmental Impacts: The Expanded Value Added Statement

Brendan O'Dwyer, Universiteit van Amsterdam and Jeffrey Unerman, Royal Holloway, London University: Conceptions of Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) Accountability: The Case of Amnesty Ireland

Vinni Pietras-Jensen, Roskilde University: Danish Company Stories

Shona Russell, Strathclyde University: Accounting for Scotland's Water: Uncovering the interdependence of governance structures and accountability practice

Richard Slack, Northumbria University and David Campbell, Newcastle University: Building Societies and Corporate Legitimacy

Crawford Spence, St Andrews University: Social and Environmental Reporting, Hegemony and Emancipation

Brian Telford, University of Glamorgan: Sustainability Reporting by U.K. Local Authorities - A preliminary study

Lucinda Wilson University of Sydney: Accountability for Corporate Social and Environmental Performance

Verena Zach Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration: The Relations Among Social Disclosure, Social Performance and Financial Performance - A preliminary research proposal