18th International Congress on Social and Environmental Accounting Research
(The CSEAR Summer School), September 6th - 8th, 2006

Papers and Presentations

Radhi Al-Hamadeen, University of St Andrews: Assurance of Corporate Stand-Alone Reports in the UK

Nick Barter, University of St Andrews: Stakeholder Theory: A flawed premise?

David Bent, Forum for the Future, Plenary Speaker: Forum for the Future's Recent Experiences in Seeking to Apply "Sustainable Accounting"

Charles H. Cho, University of Central Florida: Legitimation Strategies Used in Response to Environmental Disaster: A French case study of Total S.A.’s Erika and AZF incidents: A research proposal

Christine Cooper, University of Strathclyde, Plenary Speaker: Academics and Engagement with the Political Agenda

Irene Criado-Jiménez, University of Burgos: Corporate Sustainability Indicators Based in Valuation of Externalities: Case study of a Spanish firm

Jesse Dillard, University of Portland State: Legitimating the Social Accounting Project: An ethic of accountability

Teresa Eugénio, Escola Superior de Tecnologia e Gestão: Social and Environmental Accounting: A preliminary study

Manuel Fernández-Chulián, University of Burgos: Sustainability Reporting as Organizational Discourse

Frank Figge, St Andrews University and Sustainable Development Research Centre (SDRC), Tobias Hahn, Institute for Futures Studies and Technology Assessment, Berlin, and Ralf Barkemeyer, St Andrews University and SDRC: Sustainable Value of European Industry: Assessing the environmental performance of European industry with the Sustainable Value approach

Georgios Georgakopoulos, University of Limerick and Ian Thomson, University of Strathclyde: Supermarket Abuse? The case of the organic salmon farming industry in Scotland

Jane Gibbon, Northumbria University: "Story Telling” Research

Thomas Gladwin, University of Michigan, Plenary Speaker: The Unsustainable Commandments of Corporate Accounting

Kate Grosser, University of Nottingham (with Carol Adams (La Trobe University) and Jeremy Moon (ICCSR, Nottingham University)): Regulatory and Voluntary Approaches to Reporting Gender Workplace Issues: Australia, the UK and the USA

Kathryn Haynes, University of York: Sustainable Practice and Environmental Charter Marks

Sevgi Aydin Hergüner, Akdeniz University: Profit Maximisation Obtained from Solid Waste Recycling: A linear program model for a compost establishment

Francisco Javier Husillos Carqués, Universidad Pública de Navarra: Why Spanish Firms Report Using the GRI Guidelines

Rima Hussein, Northumbria University: Corporate Moral Personhood Through Corporate Social Responsibility: To what extent is corporate social responsibility embedded in corporate culture?

Steve Kennedy, University of Sheffield: Understanding the Problems of Operationalising Sustainable Development
Matias Laine, University of Tampere: Fads and Fashions? A longitudinal interpretive study of the disclosures of a leading Finnish chemical company

Tom Lee, University of St Andrews: Research Methods Workshop

Donna Mangion, Charles Sturt University: The Professional Accountancy Bodies and Social and Environmental Accounting

Laura Peinado Medina, Universidad Pablo de Olavide: Stakeholders Engagement in Spanish Companies

Vinni Pietras-Jensen, University of Canterbury in Christchurch: From Ethical - to Quality Accounts - The story of Spar Nord Banks non-financial accounts

Robin Roberts, University of Central Florida (with Jennifer Chen and Thomas Keon): Trying to Understand the Complexities of Corporate Philanthropy

Lorraine Ruffing, Geneva Social Observatory: Silent vs. Shadow Reporting: A Case of BP

Moritz von Schwedler, University of Sheffield: 'Greening of the Industry' - Some evidence of the development of CR within organisations

Mohammed Mohi Uddin, University of Aston: Social Accountability of NGO - A Case Study

Yangang Xing, University of Dundee: Sustainable Urban Development Accounting: A review of existing FCA models