19th International Congress on Social and Environmental Accounting Research,
St Andrews University, UK, September 3rd - 5th, 2007

Papers and Presentations

Thereza Raquel Sales de Aguiar, St Andrews University: Corporate Disclosure of Greenhouse Gas Emissions - A UK study

Maria Gabriella Baldarelli, University of Bologna at Rimini: Building an Accountability of Communion at Loppiano First

Ralf Barkemeyer, St Andrews University: Managing Development? The impact of organisational legitimacy on cross-border CSR

Nick Barter, St Andrews University: Companies that Swim Against the Tide?

David Bevan, Royal Holloway University of London, and Crawford Spence, St Andrews University: The Symbolic Violence of CSR: The destruction of ethics?

Mary Bishop, University of West of England: Disabling Accounting - developing a research methodology

Bill Blair and Gordon Boyce, Macquarie University: Reflecting on Contemporary Accounting: Teaching and learning social and critical perspectives

Nola Buhr, University of Saskatchewan, Plenary Speaker: A Discourse Analysis of Noranda's Environmental and Sustainability Reports: A story told backwards

David Campbell, Newcastle University, and Ken McPhail, University of Glasgow: Face-work: Levinas and the humanisation of corporate reporting

Charles Cho, Concordia University: Are Corporate Website Environmental Disclosures Trusted? An experimental investigation

David Collison, Colin Dey and Lorna Stevenson, Dundee University: Anglo-American Capitalism: A role for social indicators?

Massimo Contrafatto, University of Bergamo: Social Accounting in Italy: Theoretical foundations

Stuart Cooper, Aston University: Corporate Social Responsibility and Reporting in Smaller Quoted Companies: Motivations and barriers - Research proposal for ACCA

Andrea Coulson, University of Strathclyde: Reporting on Climate: Beyond Carbon

Cindy Davids and Gordon Boyce, Macquarie University: Social Accountability and the Public Interest: Conflict of interest in the public sector

Jared Davies, University of Wales, Newport: Review of Full Cost Accounting Literature

Jesse Dillard, Portland State University: Social Sustainability - One Company's Story Maria Gabriella Baldarelli

Deborah Doane, CORE, Plenary Speaker: Using Public Policy to Drive Social and Environmental Accounting - Case study of the CORE coalition

Michael Fraser, Victoria University of Wellington: Dialogics and a Sustainability Assessment Model
Rob Gray, St Andrews University, Jesse Dillard, Portland State University, and Crawford Spence, St Andrews University: (Social) Accounting (Research) as if the World Matters: Postalgia and a new absurdism

Andreas Hoepner, St Andrews University: The Financial Performance of Social Responsible Investments: Preliminary evidence from a meta-regression-

Sheila Killian, University of Limmerick: Tax Policy Formation

Matias Laine and Hannele Mäkelä, University of Tampere: The Sustainability Reporting of Municipalities? A fad, mimicry or true development?

Rebecca Maughan, Dublin Institute of Technology: An In-Depth Study of a Leading Irish Social and Environmental Reporter

Dianne McGrath, Charles Sturt University: Social Reporting: An argument for congruence

Daniel Murphy, Charles Sturt University: Analysis Institutional Socially Responsible Investment: Australian practice notes

Alan Murray, Sheffield University: Sustainable Development - the 21st century challenge to Business Schools

Akintola Owolabi, Lagos Business School, Pan African University: An Assessment of the Extent of Awareness and Protection Measures of Environmental Costs in the Nigerian Oil and Gas Industry

Laura Peinado Medina, Universidad Pablo de Olavide: The Social Responsibility Practices and the Dialogue with the Stakeholder in Spanish Companies

Angela Pinilla Urzola, Nottingham University: An Analysis of Stakeholder Engagement on the Assurance Process in Sustainability Corporate Reporting

Leonardo Rinaldi, Royal Holloway, University of London: The Tuscany Law for Citizen Participation: Towards democratic equality or a self legitimating practice?

Michelle Rodrigue, Concordia University: The Selection, Utilization and Monitoring of Internal Environmental Performance Indicators within a Multinational: A field investigation

Aracéli Cristina de Sousa Ferreira, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro: Socioenvironmental Performance in Brazil

Crawford Spence, St Andrews University: The Bourgeois Hegemonisation of the Social Accounting Literature

Amanda Tan-Sonnerfeldt, Lund University: Assurors' Independence in Sustainability Assurance Engagements: A focus on the audit profession

Ian Thomson and Shona Russell, University of Strathclyde: Governing the Transition to a Sustainable Scotland: Evaluating the role of sustainable development indicators

Helen Tregidga, Auckland University of Technology: (Re)Presenting 'Sustainable Organisations': An analysis of 'sustainable' organisational identity in New Zealand reporting discourse