Subject Access Requests – the Role of the Data Protection Co-ordinator

The Data Protection Co-ordinator's role is to act as a neutral point of contact between a Data Subject and the members of the School/Unit which is to be searched for data.

On receipt of a properly completed Subject Access Request, s/he will send a form to each School/Unit specified by you, requiring them to supply the data within 14 days [2 working weeks.]

When s/he receives these files, s/he is responsible for checking them to ensure that no other individual's personal data is included. If there is such 'third party' data, it will be deleted before the document is passed on to you.

* Payment can also be made electronically by going to <https://onlineshop.st-andrews.ac.uk/> and choosing Product Catalogue, then University Services and Facilities, then Data Protection.
