Sources and Resources: Engaging with the Academic Community

Plenary speaker: Hilary Nesi, Coventry University

The University of St Andrews is holding a one-day English for Academic Purposes conference on Saturday 9th March 2019.

We invite practitioner-focused proposals in the following areas:

- Citation and stylistic choices
- Argumentation
- Paraphrasing and synthesis
- Citing new and non-standard sources
- Citation and stance
- Citation in spoken discourse
- Pedagogical approaches to sources
- Reasons for quoting
- Mechanics of citation
- Misuse of sources

This list is not exhaustive; any relevant topics will be considered. Sessions will be scheduled for 30 minutes, and may take the form of a presentation or a workshop. All sessions should end with a section outlining implications for teaching practice.

Proposals of 300 words should be sent to Kerry Tavakoli, Conference Facilitator (kt9@st-andrews.ac.uk) on the attached proposal form. Deadline for abstracts – Monday 7th January 2019
