The University of St. Andrews Mediation Service provides a variety of conflict resolution training courses, helping people to find constructive ways to navigate conflict, develop their negotiation skills and resilience.

Online course details

- 28th May, to 27th June 2024
- Every Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30am to 1pm

Accredited Certificate in Mediation

You are invited to register.

Cost £1,800 per delegate.

We have a limited number of funded places for those who work in the third/public sectors supporting transition to Net Zero or tackling inequality. The funding is also available to students over 18 who are ordinarily domiciled in Scotland.

Both courses are accredited by Scottish Mediation and provide participants with theoretical and practical training in mediation skills.

To register or find out more, please email:
