EN5115 Women, Writing and Gender 1: Renaissance to Romanticism

Credits: 30
Semester: 1
Programme(s): Compulsory module for Women, Writing and Gender Postgraduate Taught Programme
Description: The module seeks to introduce students to a range of debates concerning women, writing and gender, 1500 – 1800. The set texts embrace a variety of generic forms, and reflect upon such questions as the ‘problem’ of woman’s voice, the interpretation of Genesis and the staging of the female body. Also central to many of the works is a concern with the role of woman in marriage and civic society, the importance of education, and the tension between domestic ideology and female desire. Central to these works is a concern with constructions of femininity and masculinity and in conjunction with EN5112, the module will also examine current critical debates surrounding the cultural configuration of gender.
Class Hour: To be arranged
Teaching: Two hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 100%

EN5116 Women, Writing and Gender 2: Victorian to Contemporary

Credits: 30
Semester: 2
Prerequisite: EN5115
Programme(s): Compulsory module for Women, Writing and Gender Postgraduate Taught Programme
Description: This module continues the chronological survey of debates surrounding women, writing and gender begun by EN5115. The module examines continuity and change in constructions of gender across the period 1800 – 2000, beginning with the ongoing significance of the fallen woman and the problem of female desire. Students will be introduced to key critical readings of nineteenth-century women’s writing before moving on to consider the emergence of the ‘new woman’ at the fin de siècle. In the twentieth century the module will consider the impact of the First World War on women’s writing, and the work of modernist writers will be examined alongside ‘middlebrow’ and popular fictions. Finally students will examine a range of contemporary writers whose rewriting of history and myth engages with current debates in gender theory.
Class Hour: To be arranged
Teaching: Two hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 100%
