Compulsory module - Semester 1:

SA5011 The Anthropology of Connections: Interdisciplinarity as Methodology
SCOTCAT Credits:	30	SCQF Level 11	Semester:	1
Planned timetable:	To be arranged.
This module builds on SA5010 by examining the relevance of other disciplines for Social Anthropology. Through lectures and seminars, students are shown how Anthropology can be extended and illuminated by working with methodologies and concepts drawn from History, Social Science, Philosophy, Language and the Arts. It shows how anthropologists must invoke other specialist disciplines during their work. It invites students to think of societies and anthropological theories as informed by internal and external constraints, dialogues and reinterpretations, which unfold in time. It will show the role of anthropology in articulating different disciplines.

Compulsory module - Semester 2:

SA5010 Research Methods in Social Anthropology
SCOTCAT Credits:	30	SCQF Level 11	Semester:	2
Planned timetable:	11.00 am Wed
This module aims to examine the methodology of anthropological research through close attention to the relationship between method and fieldwork experience. In particular, students are led into readings of fieldwork diaries, journals and letters, and invited to consider the experience of fieldwork and anthropological research in the round [i.e. not just as methodology for data collection]. A core focus is on what else about fieldwork experience and anthropological research practice we can learn from looking at diaries and letters rather than just at published ethnographic monographs.
