This module and its partner module ML5002 seek to provide the kind of research training now regarded as indispensable for all postgraduates by exploring a range of literary and cultural theories through which texts of all sorts may be conceptualised, criticised and analysed. We will study a broad chronological and national range of seminal thinkers and theories, which might typically include: Aristotle; Kant; Marxist theory; psychoanalytic theory; Benjamin; Adorno; structuralism, deconstruction and poststructuralism; feminist and queer theory; Fanon, Spivak and Bhabha; the posthuman.

Programme module type:
Compulsory for Comparative Literature, Cultural Identity Studies, French Studies, German Studies, Italian Studies, Middle Eastern Literary and Cultural Studies, Russian Studies, Spanish and Latin American Studies, Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programmes. Optional for German and Comparative Literature Postgraduate Programme. Optional for other MLitt students outside Modern Languages with permission of both Schools.

Learning and teaching methods and delivery:
Weekly contact: Lecture/seminar.

Assessment pattern:
Coursework = 100%

The Semester 2 Dissertation Report (10 ECTS) is an extended scholarly essay of approximately 10,000 words, reviewing the critical material available and outlining a first approach to the research topic to be addressed in the Masters Dissertation. The student collects the necessary data and performs the following specified operations: (i) determination and evaluation of a corpus of primary material, together with a first effort of analysis designed to explore and demonstrate the potential of the subject; (ii) bibliographical survey of secondary sources, analysing and evaluating all critical material to be used; (iii) definition of perspectives of approach and methodology to be followed by the 30 ECTS Dissertation; (iv) delimitation of the subject and determination of title, together with a proposed plan.

Programme module type:
One of two compulsory pathways in Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programme. (The alternative is the pair ML5106 and ML5108)

Pre-requisite(s):
Admission to Crossways in Cultural Narratives programme

Anti-requisite(s):

This module is part of a series of three devoted to the research leading to the Mundus Dissertation. It comes after ML5104 Mundus Dissertation Report and before ML5199 Mundus Dissertation. It consists of a series of one-to-one meetings with the supervisor in which specific areas and issues of the topic are explored. The module outcome is twofold: (i) a 5,000-word piece of writing which is consistent with the work to be carried out in the Dissertation, such as a literature review or a first full draft of a chapter, or shorter versions of more than one; and (ii) an oral presentation where the student provides a summary of the progress achieved towards the Dissertation during the semester and pointing to work that is to be embarked upon during the next and final semester.

Programme module type: Compulsory for Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programme

Pre-requisite(s): ML5104 or ML5106 and ML5108

Co-requisite(s): ML5199

Planned timetable: To be arranged.

This 20 ECTS (40 SCOTCAT credit) module is a compulsory 20,000 word dissertation written on an approved topic as the culmination of the EU-funded Mundus Masters programme. Normally, it is written at the third University of the student's study itinerary during Semester 4 of the programme. In the one-year, direct entry variant of the programme, it is prepared during the 'trailing semester' (non-residential) which runs from the end of semester 2 to the following 31 September. In both cases, it is written in one of the principal languages of study (not necessarily in the language of the country of study) and is supervised by a 'principal' and a 'support' supervisor from two Universities of the Consortium.

Planned timetable: To be arranged.

This module explores some of the key theoretical and methodological questions which arise when texts enter into relation with one another. A range of possible relations is explored by means of a number of case studies, for instance: interdisciplinary and intermedial relations; genetic relations; intercultural adaptations; clashes. Students are expected to find further texts to ‘prolong’ the comparison in a meaningful way, drawing on their respective expertise in different languages, thus developing an in-depth understanding of methods and theoretical frameworks in Comparative Literature. The module will be based on at least three disciplines, including but not limited to Arabic, French, German, Italian, Persian, Russian, Spanish. Translations of the core texts discussed in class will be available.

Programme module type: Compulsory for Comparative Literature and German and Comparative Literature Postgraduate Programmes. Optional for Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programmes. Optional for Cultural Identity Studies Postgraduate Programme.

Learning and teaching methods and delivery: Weekly contact: 2 hours (lectures and seminars)

Assessment pattern: Coursework = 100%

Module coordinator: Dr S Talajooy

Planned timetable: To be arranged.

The module analyses the meaning of the word ‘contemporary’ as applied to literary texts, exploring questions such as: does ‘contemporary’ signify ‘10 years ago’ or ‘10 months ago’? Who decides (e.g. which institutions and market forces)? Does this differ from one European country to another? From one genre to another? Different theories of canon-formation are assessed in terms of their viability vis-à-vis contemporary literature: can there be a truly contemporary canon? Is world literature linked to canon formation? What is the role of publishing houses, retailers, literary prizes, the internet, social media and media scandals in constructing ‘today’s canon’? The module is based on at least three disciplines, including but not limited to Arabic, French, German, Italian, Persian, Russian, Spanish, and combines theoretical sessions with a number of case studies.

Programme module type: Compulsory for Comparative Literature Postgraduate Programmes. Optional for Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programmes. Optional for Cultural Identity Studies Postgraduate Programme.

Learning and teaching methods and delivery: Weekly contact: 2 hours (lectures and seminars)

Assessment pattern: Coursework = 100%

Module coordinator: Prof M-A Hutton

This module introduces students to a range of skills which are essential to advanced researchers and key to many other non-academic workplaces. We will focus on analytic and critical skills (for instance writing abstracts; critically reviewing articles and research seminar presentations; producing a research poster); oral skills (presentations; asking questions in research seminars); group work (planning a conference); IT research skills. The skills sessions will be tailored to suit modern linguists and comparatists. Seminar preparation and coursework will be directly linked to individual students' own research interests. First year PhD students are invited to audit some part of the programme, adding a valuable component of peer input to the module.

Programme module type:
- Compulsory for Comparative Literature, Cultural Identity Studies, French Studies, German Studies, Italian Studies, Middle Eastern Literary and Cultural Studies, Russian Studies, Spanish and Latin American Studies Postgraduate Programmes.
- Optional for Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programme.

The module aims to introduce major aspects and dimensions of the question of cultural identity. Through the study of a broad range of particular cultural traditions, it seeks to enhance understanding of the concepts and mechanisms involved in the formation of collective identity as such (the 'poetics' of cultural identity). Particular topics treated may include: concepts of culture and identity; collective memory; icons of identity; historiography and myth; complex identities and cultural hybridity.

Programme module type:
- Compulsory for Cultural Identity Studies Postgraduate Programme.
- Optional for Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programme.
- Optional for other MLitt students within and outside Modern Languages with permission of both Schools.

Learning and teaching methods and delivery:
- Weekly contact: 1-hour lecture and 1-2-hour seminar.

Assessment pattern:

Planned timetable: 11.00 am Tue and Wed

This module will focus on the relationship between Europe and the Americas (i.e. Latin and North America, including Canada). It will explore the ways in which European authors and thinkers encounter, embrace, oppose or reject American cultures, politics and values, and how American authors in turn react to European influences. The subject will be studied through a range of literary, filmic and theoretical approaches generated in France, Germany, Spain, Italy and Russia, as well as in Latin and North America, from the discovery of the New World to the 21st century. More particularly, this module will invite students to further their awareness and understanding of the notions of identity and power at play in the many different discourses generated in Europe about America as well as different axes or networks of dialogue between North America, Latin America and Europe.

Programme module type: Optional for Comparative Literature, Cultural Identity Studies and Crossways in Cultural Narratives Postgraduate Programmes. Optional for other MLitt students outside Modern Languages with permission of both Schools.

Learning and teaching methods and delivery: Weekly contact: 1.5 hours comprising a combination of lectures and seminars.

Assessment pattern: Coursework = 100%

Module coordinator: TBC
