B.D. Honours
The B.D. Honours programme is a fast-track 3-year Honours degree open only to those who are already university graduates in another discipline. B.D. Honours degree students must accumulate a total of 390 credits normally over a period of three years, of which 150 credits will be in Honours modules (also referred to as 3000, 4000 or (H) level modules). Refer to programme specification and degree regulations for details.

M.Theol. Honours
In addition to the specific requirements listed below, the following general conditions must also be met to graduate with an Honours degree. All M.Theol. Honours degree students must accumulate a total of 480 credits over a period of normally four and no more than five years. The Honours Programme will normally involve the study of modules worth at least 240 credits gained during the 3rd and 4th years, of which at least 210 will be in Honours modules (also referred to as 3000, 4000 or (H) level modules) and at least 120 credits of which must be at 4000 or (H) level in Divinity. Refer to Faculty of Divinity regulations for subjects qualifying towards an M.Theol. degree.

M.Theol. General
In addition to the specific requirements listed below, the following general conditions must also be met to graduate with a General M.Theol. degree. General M.Theol. degree students must accumulate a total of 360 credits over a minimum period of three years and no more than four years, or the equivalent period of part-time study, of which at least 80 are in Second Level modules (also referred to as 2000 level) and at least 60 are in Third level modules (also referred to as 3000 level) in Divinity. Refer to programme specifications and degree regulations for further details.

Other Information: In the case of students who spend part of the Honours Programme abroad on a recognised Exchange Scheme, the Programme Requirements will be amended to take into account courses taken while abroad.

The Honours syllabus is undergoing a major change commencing in 2002-03 and Programme requirements listed below are those for students entering the first year of the Honours Programme in 2002-03 or subsequently. Students entering the Second Year of the Honours programme in 2002-03 should refer to School Handbooks and consult Honours Advisers for the requirements of their honours programme.

DI4607 New Testament Ethos and Ethics
Credits: 30.0 Semester: 1
Availability: 2003-04
Prerequisite: 11 or better in DI2003
Anti-requisite: DI3107
Description: This module seeks to familiarise students with the ethical traditions of the New Testament and enable them to relate these traditions to their context and critically to assess them. The course will explore the ethical teaching of the New Testament from the new approach which has developed from Clifford Geertz's analysis of 'ethos' as the moral and aesthetic style, tone and quality of a community's life. Accordingly, students will examine the distinctive ethical orientations of particular New Testament texts, especially those of Matthew and Paul, less from the point of view of identifying moral rules than from a concern with how the ideas and values relate to the meaning of individual and social existence. The importance of issues such as eschatology and pneumatology in New Testament ethics will also be considered.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Two hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4614  The Historical Jesus

Credits: 30.0
Availability: 2002-03
Prerequisite: 11 or better in DI1006
Anti-requisite: DI3114

Description: In view of recent debate over the historical Jesus, this course seeks to encourage students to determine a viable methodology for historical Jesus research and to develop a defensible, comprehensive hypothesis of the aims and life of this figure. The course will begin with an analysis of the state of the quest(s) for the historical Jesus, including the Cynic hypothesis. It will then examine critically the trial narratives, the Temple incident, the reasons for Jesus’ execution, Jesus’ attitude to the Jewish law and the preaching of the kingdom of God in an effort to determine the main features of his message. The major roles attributed to Jesus - prophet, teacher, charismatic healer, Messiah, Son of Man, Son of God - will also be considered critically, as well as selected events of Jesus’ life.

Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Two hour seminar and occasional lectures.

Prerequisites: DI1002 and 11 or better in DI2005
Anti-requisite: DI3305
Description: This module allows students the possibility of pursuing a special topic in Practical Theology by arrangement with the staff of the subject area and the Head of School. The topic will be chosen from one of the areas of specialisation of the teaching staff or of a visiting scholar. A written statement of teaching and assessment will be agreed with the student and lodged with the Dean of Faculty.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Two hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4809 Christian Ethics : An Historical Approach

Credits: 30.0
Semester: 1
Availability: 2002-03
Prerequisite: Either DI2004 or DI2005
Anti-requisite: DI3309
Description: This module will study some of the most important and exciting developments within the history of Christian ethics. It will consider how major thinkers have understood and applied the teaching of Jesus Christ to practical concerns. Students will be introduced to The Confessions of St Augustine and will have the opportunity to explore for themselves what he says about marriage, lying, virginity, etc. They will learn about the doomed romance between Abelard and Heloise and its effect upon their understanding of virtue and vice, and will read what Luther and Calvin say, respectively, about Christian social action and ethics as an attitude of gratitude towards God. The module will also study topics from the modern era, notably John Wesley’s social ethics and Kierkegaard’s treatment of the biblical story of Abraham’s near sacrifice of Isaac.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One 2 hour seminar and one lecture.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%
DI4810  Health-Care Issues in Christian Perspective
Credits: 30.0  Semester: 2
Availability: 2003-04
Prerequisite: Either DI2004 or DI2005
Anti-requisite: DI3310
Description: This module offers students the opportunity to study contemporary health-care issues within the broad framework of a Christian perspective. There will be opportunity to study and assess biblical and theological attitudes to health, as well as current statements by churches. Topics covered will include genetic engineering, resource allocation, mental health, AIDS and HIV.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One lecture and one 2 hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4816  The Theology of the Musical
Credits: 30.0  Semester: 2
Availability: 2002-03
Anti-requisite: DI3316
Description: This module examines the theological and spiritual dimension of one of the most powerful and distinctive cultural form and icon of the twentieth century – the musical. It involves detailed textual, linguistic, musical and cultural analysis of key musicals, including The Sound of Music, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Jesus Christ Superstar, Godspell, Fiddler on the Roof, Les Miserables and Whistle Down the Wind, and examination of their implicit and explicit theological agendas and philosophies. The course also considers the musical as a liturgical vehicle and post-modern theological and spiritual experience.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Three hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4890  The Buddhist Tradition
Credits: 30.0  Semester: 2
Availability: 2002-03
Anti-requisite: DI3390
Description: A profound manifestation of religiousness, developing in and emanating from India, the Buddhist tradition has formulated responses to fundamental human issues, quite different from those proposed within theistic movements, and has continued to develop in Sri Lanka, Southeast Asia, China, Japan and elsewhere. This course investigates the formative structure of the tradition in India, key expressions of the human predicament, the make-up of the individual, the life context as morally significant (karma), conceptions of salvific truth, the practice of meditation, notions of liberation, “emptiness”, bodhisattva, buddhaness, leading to the consideration of Theravada, Zen, and the Pure Land School. Essays will focus on aspects of Theravada or Zen or the Pure Land or issues in Buddhist-Christian dialogue.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One 1 hour lecture, one two-hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 40%, 3 Hour Examination = 60%
Divinity - Honours

DI4914 Theology and Recent Continental Philosophy

Credits: 30.0
Availability: 2003-04
Prerequisite: Admission to Honours programme in Divinity, Theological Studies or Philosophy.
Anti-requisite: DI3319
Description: This course will allow students to consider the implications, both positive and negative, of recent Continental philosophy for theology. The course will grapple with late Heidegger, Derrida and Irigaray, and will also give attention to Levinas. Basic themes will be Heidegger’s discernment of Being; the Heideggerian and Derridean critique of metaphysics with its implications for classical theism; Heidegger’s relationship to Christian theology; Derrida’s Jewish background and its impact on his thought; the implications of Derrida’s prohibition on pre-linguistic experience for religious consciousness; Irigaray’s wish to create a female “transcendental” and her critique of Levinasian ethics.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Two one-and-a-half hour sessions.
Assessment: 3 Hour Examination = 100%

DI4915 Theology Special Topic: Beyond the Image: Theological Encounters with Literature and the Arts

Credits: 30.0
Availability: 2002-03
Prerequisite: D1001, and 11 or better in DI2004
Anti-requisite: DI3415
Description: This module will consider second order questions about the nature of theological engagement with literature and the arts, but will do so by hosting a string of first order ‘encounters’ with various artistic texts. Reflection and practice, method and substance will thus be carefully integrated. The particular chosen focus of theological concern will be the shape of our humanity, according to the Christian theological tradition created, fallen, assumed by the divine Word, and glorified. We shall explore these themes through the imaginative media of novels, poetry, film, painting and music.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Two hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4919 Salvation in Christian Reflection

Credits: 30.0
Availability: 2003-04
Prerequisites: DI1001 and either DI2004 or DI2005, and DI3430
Anti-requisite: DI3419
Description: This module will explore the understandings of salvation which have shaped the Christian tradition. Consideration will be given to the extent to which western interpretations of the nature of God, law and sin have led to distortive soteriological accounts – interpretations whose impact has not always been constructive either at the individual or social levels. In the light of extensive recent Biblical and theological research, we shall reconsider what theologians are warranted in affirming with respect to this fundamental doctrine which lies at the heart of the Christian faith.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One-and-a-half hour seminar and one lecture.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%
DI4921 The Body and Society
Credits: 30.0  Semester: 1
Availability: 2003-04
Anti-requisite: DI3421
Description: This module explores current concern with ‘the body’ in the light of the complex Christian metaphor of the body. Areas covered include pornography, domestic violence, eating disorders and the impact of consumer capitalism, which are studied in both sociological and theological discussion.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One lecture and one 2 hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4924 Theology and Imagination
Credits: 30.0  Semester: 2
Availability: 2002-03
Prerequisites: DI1001, DI2004
Anti-requisite: DI3424
Description: This module will explore the nature of the human capacity for imagination and its significance within common human, religious and Christian theological contexts. This will be achieved both through theoretical and applied approaches to the theme. Weekly lectures will consider the ways and places in which imagination functions in such distinctively human phenomena as knowledge, faith, hope, joy, morality, desire and understanding. In addition we may consider such themes as revelation and imagination, creation and creativity, incarnation and artistic imagination, inspiration and Spirit, and ritual, symbolism and sacrament. Weekly seminars will attend to a selection of products of human imagining (novels, plays, poetry, examples of visual art and music) with a view to exploring the theological questions raised by and expressed in them.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One-and-a-half hour lecture and one-and-a-half hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%

DI4928 Theological Anthropology
Credits: 30.0  Semester: 2
Availability: 2002-03
Prerequisite: 11 or better in DI2004
Anti-requisite: DI3428
Description: This module seeks to integrate philosophical and theological considerations of what it is to be a self and a person. The key issues here are introduced through critical engagement with Descartes’ interpretation of the self, assessing the profound impact of Cartesian dualism on the theological debate. In dialogue with recent debates in philosophy and philosophical theology it will consider how we conceive of the self and most specifically the self-relation (self-awareness, self-understanding, self-knowledge, self-governance) together with associated issues relating to moral autonomy and agency. The second half of the module will progress, in the light of these considerations, to an engagement with the main schools of anthropological thinking characteristic of the modern/contemporary theological debate considering the contribution which Christian theology’s own resources offer to the business of interpreting what it is to be a self.
Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: Two hour lecture, seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%
Divinity - Honours

DI4999 Feminist Theory

Credits: 30.0  Semester: 2
Availability: 2003-04
Anti-requisite: DI3499
Prerequisite: Entry to an Honours programme in one or more of the following Schools: Art History, Divinity, English, Greek, Latin & Ancient History, History, Modern Languages, Philosophical & Anthropological Studies, Psychology, Social Sciences (Economics, International Relations).

Description: We shall commence by reading Carol Gilligan and Nancy Chodorow, who have translated British object relations (psychoanalytic) theory into a feminist context and who consider questions of inter-personal relations, self-identity and ethics. Taking this material, we shall consider how it has been utilised by women working in political theory: Seyla Benhabib, Jane Flax and Iris Young. We shall look at philosophical questions to do with the nature of the self in relation to others in Caroline Whitbeck’s and Eleanor Haney’s work and ask after the import of the discussion of human ‘attending’ in Iris Murdoch and Martha Nussbaum. Finally, we shall move to a consideration of the work of women coming out of a French Lacanian and post-structuralist context, looking at some shorter texts of Luce Irigaray, Julia Kristeva and Hélène Cixous.

Class Hour: To be arranged.
Teaching: One-and-a-half hour lecture plus one-and-a-quarter hour seminar.
Assessment: Continuous Assessment = 30%, 3 Hour Examination = 70%
