| Further Requirements:
- no more than 60 credits must be gained from ME-, MO- or HI-coded 2000-level modules.
- At least two modules must be completed in American History.
- At least two modules must be completed in British and/or European History.
- At least two modules must be completed in Non-Western History.
- Students must complete successfully at least four modules in one of the approved languages (Arabic, German, French, Italian, Latin, Russian, Spanish): two modules in year 1 of the programme, and two modules in year 2 at the partner institution (all modules must be taught in the target language—no modules in translation).
- Language modules taken prior to matriculation into the Joint Degree Programme do not count toward this requirement (this includes high school courses).
- Students are strongly encouraged, though not required, to continue language study beyond the required modules in order to build toward genuine linguistic and cultural fluency, and are particularly encouraged to explore courses at and above the 300-/3000 level. Honours-level language courses taken during years 3 and/or 4 of the programme may be counted toward the required honours-level courses.
In rare cases, students may be permitted to switch to a new language during or after year 1 of the programme. In such cases, they must complete four progressive courses in the new language. Students who have not been able to complete the requirement by the end of year 2 may be able to complete any remaining modules/courses during year 3.
- French can only be commenced at intermediate/post-202 level).
* Students wishing to start studying Italian at W&M must begin with ITAL101. Because of limitations on W&M upper-level Italian offerings, they will typically spend their third year at St Andrews, where they will take three Italian modules, unless arrangements can be made for them to take two upper-level Italian modules in year 3 at W&M.
† 30-credit Honours modules in Latin count as two advanced modules. |
