

Ethics and World Politics Seminar Series

BISA Ethics and World Politics Working Group

Friday 29 September 2017

12.30-19.30

School of International Relations
University of St Andrews

We are pleased to announce our latest Ethics and World Politics research seminar, which is an ongoing forum for scholars to present, discuss, and develop the latest work on the normative dimensions of world politics.

The session will feature:

Keynote Lecture

Prof Richard Beardsworth (Aberystwyth)

Papers

Dr Cian O'Driscoll (Glasgow)

"Winning Dirty? Victory in Medieval Just War Thought"

Dr Natasha Saunders (St Andrews)

"Beyond Asylum Claims: Refugee Protest, Political Responsibility, and Article 28 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights"

Dr Elke Schwarz (Leicester)

"Technology and Moral Vacuums in Just War Theorising"

The seminar will kick off at 12.30 with a light lunch provided, as well as refreshments during the session. There will also be a drinks reception after the keynote lecture. The seminar will take place in the Arts Lecture Theatre and the keynote lecture will be held in Arts Seminar Room 1.

This is a free event but we would, however, ask that you contact us to register for the event, so we can plan accordingly. You can register through Eventbrite by following this link.

BISA members who are postgraduate students or not in full-time employment are eligible to apply for a bursary to help cover travel costs. Please contact ethicsbisa@gmail.com for details.

This even is supported by BISA and the School of International Relations at the University of St Andrews. We look forward to seeing you in September! Please get in touch if you have any questions.
