Modern Languages students at the University of St Andrews want to answer your questions about university life and the courses in Arabic, French, German, Italian, Persian, Russian and Spanish they take as part of their degree.

Pick the students’ brains and then chat over coffee and cake!

Wednesday 21st November 2018
2-4pm, Arts Lecture Theatre, St Andrews
Open to any interested S5 and S6 pupil regardless of subject background.

Talk to your language teacher for more details.
