INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

POLITICS, CONFLICT, AND INSURRECTION: THE EXPERIENCE AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE PRONUNCIAMIENTO IN NINETEENTH-CENTURY MEXICO

19-21 June 2009

St Salvator’s College & New Hall
University of St Andrews

Department of Spanish, School of Modern Languages
Arts and Humanities Research Council, UK

Conference Programme:

Friday 19 June 2009

12:00-14:00  Registration – New Hall

14:00       Welcome & Opening Remarks
            Professor Will Fowler, University of St Andrews, UK

14:15-16:15  Session 1 “The Evolution and Development of the Pronunciamiento” – St Salvator’s College, Room 31
            Chair: Dr Natalia Sobrevilla, University of Kent, UK

14:15       “The Compass Points of Unrest: Pronunciamientos from Within, Without, Above and Below in Southeast Mexico, 1820-1876”
            Professor Terry Rugeley, University of Oklahoma, USA

16:15       Tea break – Room 32
16:45-19:00  Session 1 - continued “The Evolution and Development of the Pronunciamiento” – St Salvator’s College, Room 31
Chair: Dr Natalia Sobrevilla, University of Kent, UK

“El fiel de la balanza: El Puerto de Veracruz y los pronunciamientos militares en México, 1820-1867”
Dr Juan Ortiz Escamilla, Universidad Veracruzan, Mx

“Intervention and Empire: Politics as Usual?”
Dr Erika Pani, El Colegio de México, Mx

“Un pronunciamiento socialista: el levantamiento de Julio López Chávez en 1868”
Dr Eduardo Flores Clair, DEH-INAH, Mx

19:30  Dinner – Byre Theatre Restaurant

Saturday 20 June 2009

9:00-11:00  Session 2 “The Experience of the Pronunciamiento” – St Salvator’s College, Room 31
Chair: Dr Iona MacIntyre, University of Edinburgh, UK

“The Interplay of Conflict, Insurrection and Ritual Resolution in the Nineteenth-Century Mexican Pronunciamiento”
Dr Natasha Picôt, University of St Andrews, UK

“The Perception of the Pronunciamiento and of Political Conflict in Nineteenth-Century Mexico”
Dr Germán Martínez Martínez, University of St Andrews, UK

“The Distinct Experience of the Campechean Pronunciamiento: the Domingo Barret Revolt of 1846”
Shara Ali, University of St Andrews, UK

11:00  Coffee Break – Room 32
11:30-13:15  Session 3 “The Participants – Individual Actors: Goals and Motivations” – St Salvator’s College, Room 31
Chair: Professor Andrew Ginger, University of Stirling, UK

“Settling Local Scores Nationally: Felipe de la Garza’s pronunciamento in Nuevo Santander against Emperor Agustín”
Dr Catherine Andrews, Universidad Autónoma de Tamaulipas, Mx

“Compulsive pronunciados in Jalisco: Their Goals and Motivations”
Rosie Doyle, University of St Andrews, UK

“Serial pronunciados of San Luis Potosi”
Kerry McDonald, University of St Andrews, UK

13:15-14:30 Buffet Lunch – Room 32

14:30-16:45  Session 3 - continued: “The Participants – Individual Actors: Goals and Motivations”
Chair: Professor Andrew Ginger, University of Stirling, UK

“José Ramón García Ugarte: Patriot, Federalist, or Malcontent”
Dr Linda Arnold, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, USA

“Radical Federalism vs. The Aristocracy: Ponciano Arriaga and Mariano Ávila’s Pronunciamiento of 1838”
Sergio Cañedo Gamboa, El Colegio de San Luis, Mx

“Los pronunciamientos de Mariano Paredes y Arrillaga, 1839-1848”
Dr Josefina Zoraida Vázquez, El Colegio de México, Mx

16:45-17:15 Tea break – Room 32

17:15-18:30  Session 4 “The Participants – Corporate and Communal Actors: Goals and Motivations”
Chair: Dr Rebecca Earle, University of Warwick, UK

“Civilian Pronunciados: Moderates, Polkos and the Pronunciamiento of 26 February 1847”
Melissa Boyd, University of St Andrews, UK

“Elites políticas, clases populares, y pronunciamientos en Guanajuato, 1820-1848”
Dr José Antonio Serrano Ortega, El Colegio de Michoacán, Mx

19:30 Conference Dinner – The Links Clubhouse
Sunday 21 June 2009

9:00-11:15  Session 4 - continued “The Participants – Corporate and Communal Actors: Goals and Motivations” –
St Salvator’s College, Room 31
Chair: Dr Rebecca Earle, University of Warwick, UK

“The Sierra Norte de Puebla: Treasure Trove of Pronunciamientos, 1821-1876”
Dr Guy P.C. Thomson, University of Warwick, UK

“Clerical direction or instigation? The Church's Role in Pronunciamientos”
Dr Anne Staples, El Colegio de Mexico, Mx

“Officers and Pronunciamientos”
Professor Will Fowler, University of St Andrews, UK

11:15-11:45  Coffee Break – Room 32

11:45-13:00  Final Session: “The Pronunciamiento in Independent Mexico, 1821-1876” Project Report, Update & Roundtable Discussion with the participation of discussants: Dr Natalia Sobrevilla, Dr Iona MacIntyre, Professor Andrew Ginger, and Dr Rebecca Earle

13:00  Buffet Lunch – Room 32