

University of St Andrews

School of Psychology & Neuroscience

Seminar Programme: Semester 2 2017

Unless otherwise specified, seminars take place at 3.30pm on Fridays in the Old Library of the Psychology Building. A wine reception in the staff common room will follow the seminar.

- 3rd February Dr Ken Scott Brown (University of Abertay)
How much screen is seen? Perceptual and Cognitive factors associated with viewing multiple-scene displays
- 10th February Dr Ben Vincent (University of Dundee)
Food and sex: some now, or more later?
- 17th February Dr Fhionna Moore (University of Dundee)
Sex, stress and mental health
- 24th February Dr Willem Frankenhuis (Radboud Universiteit)
Cognitive adaptations to harsh environments
- 3rd March Dr Cleo Pike and Dr Pralle Kriengwatana (University of St Andrews)
Title tbc
- 10th March Dr Ayse Uksul (University of Kent)
Economic culture and children's responses to ostracism situations
- 31st March Dr Olivier Pennacio (University of St Andrews)
Title tbc
- 7th April Dr Konstanse Krueger (University of Regensburg)
Social learning and innovation on horses
- 14th April Dr Kirstie Ball (University of St Andrews)
Institutional trustworthiness and the security-privacy trade-off in Europe
- 21st April Professor Giles Hardingham (University of Edinburgh)
Signalling pathways to degeneration or to resilience